Do what you do best – consulting!

And we provide the platform.

Grow with Signavio

Successfully support your clients in achieving business transformation with the Signavio Partner Program. Free or discounted Signavio licenses for customer projects or for your internal use enable you to implement optimal processes, decision making and workflow.

The benefits however, do not stop there, with Signavio, your company can gain access to the global Signavio network and also benefit from a joint market position expanding your company's visibility. Signavio is proud of its user-friendly capabilities, which makes it easy to introduce to clients and thus improves project success. Optional commission for referrals and reselling discounts additionally help your company to grow with Signavio.

Two Options – Consulting Partners and Certified Consulting Partners

A free Signavio Corporate Edition license per partnering company enables access to Signavio's renowned features including Quickmodel, step-by-step simulation and process cost analysis, along with the professional BPMN 2.0 modeling at its core. Consulting partner companies have the option to earn attractive commissions from successful lead referrals. A personalized registration form for your clients ensures a consistent customer experience and provides you with notifications when your clients complete the registration. Further benefits include our open BPMN training, which is discounted for Signavio Consulting Partners.

Certified Consulting Partners benefit from joint marketing with links and referrals on the Signavio website and throughout our marketing channels. Marketing materials are provided by Signavio and certified partners are authorized to use the Signavio Certified Partner logo. Certified partners may also take advantage of attractive reselling options of Signavio software. An exclusive two-day training is included in their package along with free admittance to the annual Signavio Partner Day.

Why Signavio?

Signavio enables companies of all industries to gain greater efficiency and operational agility, empowering better management of risk and compliance in the face of increasing regulation while capitalizing on opportunities.
